We the yearbook staff of 1986 dedicate this yearbook to the Senior class. May all their future endeavors be successful and happy.

Chris-

Im really glad that you and I have been friends for the past 10 years. Thank for making them the best years of my schooling. Ill never forget the first summer of Upward Bound, looking back to that summ Dunn Dues Coops grown up a lot and so have you, we don't fight as much as we did then.

I wish you the best of luck always I know you will always succeed with whatever you choose to do. You have got a lot of potential to do what you choose.

Keep in touch after graduation. Ill never forget you.

Love Always

HOMECOMING WEEK

Homecoming week got off to a sleepy start with pajama day on Monday. Monday evening's Coronation was full of surprises. There were pep talks from volleyball captains Kenya Swanson & Beth Hohenstein and from football captains David Ziegler & Kevin Heller. Skits were presented by Kevin Hagge as a modern day Romeo and Wes Kranz as Juliet!!! The cheerleaders became a football drill team, and the volleyball players gave their rendition of "Camp Granada." There were lots of cheers including the new pom pom routine to "St. Elmoe's Fire." Last but not least the 1986 King and Queen were crowned. 1985 King, Dale Potz crowned Kevin Heller succesor to the throne. Queen Sue Wendtland crowned Amy Mountain as the new queen.

Tuesday we took a turn for the worse with Nerd day. Prince & Princess and King & Queen Nerd were crowned. Our Nerdy royalty were:

Prince - Harvey Ball
Princess - Kelly Pentico
King - Andy Kranz
Queen - Ginny Glaubitz

They were crowned during a pep fest for the volleyball players. During the pep fest the seniors had an orange rolling contest with the teachers. The seniors won!!!

Tuesday night's game against A-GT was another victory for the volleyball players. They downed the Chargers 3 games to 0. Good job girls!

Wednesday was bright and sunny as the students took on Hawaiian shirt and beach day.

Thursday we took another turn for the worse. Grub day brought out the worst clothes from the back of our closets.

Purple/White day on Friday really showed our school's true colors! There was a pep fest for the football team. The captains, David Ziegler & Kevin Heller and the coaches, Mr. Escher & Mr. Harrington played "Pin the tail on the tiger." The captains won!!

The football game on Friday night was really close but the CATS ended up losing their first game, 22-25, to the Henderson Tigers.

The last night of Homecoming week was Saturday. It started at 8 p.m. with the dance whose theme was "Forever." The band was Extravagance. The Grand March began at 9 p.m. An exciting week ended at 11:30 p.m. with the closing of the dance.

Prom

This year's prom theme was "Forever Young." Entertainment was provided by some of the junior girls. Punch pourers were Andy Kranz, Becky Hohenstein, Natalie Meurer, and Bob Klages. This years band was XLNC, and our own Troy "Slick" Lundgren was part of the band. Jeff Saucier and Anita Anderson read the prophecies. Theresa Lundgren and Jeff Keinholz read the wills (not pictured). Grand March announcer was Mr. Grupe.

Forever Young

Prophicies

Hog and Monkey are now co-stars in the long running series "Wild Kingdom". Their both battling for the title "King of the Jungle".

Rusty Burns now owns his own business, where he works with people. But business has been kind of DEAD lately. He's hoping it will pick up soon.

Paul Matzke hasn't been heard from since he became a hobbit his senior year.

Video Joe is the head cameraman for Chuck Pasek and the rest of the crew at KEYC. He's 12, He's home, He's Video Joe.

Brian Zelinsky is the new editor of Field and Stream, he was hired because of all his outdoor experiences.

Steve Lecklider has been busy composing his own music for his concert next year at Carnigie Hall.

Rumor has it Rod Blanck is currently studying to be a comedian under instructor Harvey Ball, who is trying to teach him how to be funny. (that was funny, ha ha!)

Kevin Hagge is the president of Pepsi Corporation, he could be even a bigger competitor of his dad's if he didn't eat all his profits.

Bryan Sowers is now director of a world wide out reach program, he was the only man suitable for the job, no one else had the arm span!!!!

Troy Lundgren has recently signed a contract with Rush. Geddy isn't sure if it was a good idea or not, because Troy can't stay awake for the band to practice.

Anthony Weir sells dictionaries door to door. He's hoping that in the years to come he'll be promoted to encylopedia's. He still likes to downhill ski in his spare time.

David Pongratz and Steve Laborde has opened a car and truck custom design company. They'll design a car to fit your needs!

After Paul Meyer's high school singing career, he has been selected to be the lead singer of Van Halen. But after sliding into the amplifier, he is now temporarily laid-up.

After sending in his demo tape, Wes Kranz has been chosen to sing a solo in the Vienna Boys Choir. A few tiny details have to be taken care of but we all know he'll stick it out.

Kevin Heller is in Germany trying to coach football, or as the Germans say "Fussball". They have a hard time understanding some of Kevin's tactics. Kevin hears alot of "Polecat? Was ist das?"

Paul Matzke, Mike Jansen, Paul Meyer, and Rusty Burns have tried out for the singing groupo Meundo but were turned down because they were too old, so they went on to join Roy Rogers and Buck Owens on Hee-Haw.

David Pongratz, Steve Laborde, Rod Blanck, and Brian Zelinsky got tired of our country's rules and government, so they decided to pack up their tractors, tools and cars and get out of the U.S. You can now find them living happily in Libya, fixing Kadaffies automobiles.

After retiring from his professional football, basketball and baseball careers, David Ziegler is now a full time coon hunter.

Mike and Michelle Jansen are in the process of uniting their family to form a pop rock group. They're hoping to pick up where Donny and Marie left off.

Kelly Hanson is living in an artist's village in Tahiti.

Michelle Schwantes is a court reporter for Blue Earth County. She really likes her job, because she gets to keep in touch with alot of her classmates.

Patty Shaw is the owner of Rothforks. She has three daily specials: breakfast-Patty cakes, lunch-Patty on a bun, and dinner-Patty melt.

Mona Larson has futhered her gymnastics career, she now competes for the U.S.A. team, world wide. And now that Mary Lou Retton is to old to compete, Mona hopes to "energize" the world!!

Beth Hohenstein has retired her volleyball shoes, only to become the head volleyball coach of the Men's Olympic Volleyball team. Beth has never enjoyed practice so much before, and she loves to watch the fish-flops!

In the year, 2001, Cristine May finally finished the 1986 Yearbook, just in time to become editor of what was the daily Mankato Free Press.

In the spring of May 1986, Amy Korteum composed her first piano concerto . . . 1990 she moved to Salzburg, Germany, to join an German rock group . . . 1996 she releases her first hit single: ROCK ME FRAU BANWART!!!

Val Fleming is now employed at a hatchery, she loves working with eggs. She give them alot of tender loving care!!!!!!

Jenny Seewald's body is still as good as it was when she was a senior, for she was voted top Playboy bunny for 1990.

Lisa Jaeger recently had to give up her National Pork Queen title, because she was caught breaking a window while trying to ROB a sherbet ice cream store. She tried to excape, only to back her ark, alias the L.T.D., into a pick-up. The only animal to survive the crash was a hog, who helped her get home only to find good old Arlo at the end of the driveway . . . BUSTED AGAIN!!

Rumor has it Kenya is to the age where she just can't anymore! So never ask "Can ya, can't ya, will ya, won't ya" ever again.

In a matter of a few months after graduation Amy Mountain is appearing on a soap opera, Two Lifes to Live, one foreign and one domestic.

Jodi Oslund finally open her mouth once too often. While travelling in a foreign country, she was picked off by an old aquaintance. Frankly, we never found out who it was.

Jodi Salfer has been in the news lately, for being head chairman of a major mineral producing plant.

Ginny Glaubitz is on the KEEZ payroll, where she giggles along with Chris King in the morning. I guess she'd do anything to laugh.

When she's not wheeling around the streets of V.C., you'll find Beth behind a typewriter at Garden City, where she's now the secretary, after Betty moved up to a higher position. Beth can only type 150 words a minute, because the typewriters are still a bit water-logged.

Lisa Trio is now manufacturing a new beverage made by a natural process. But she hasn't thought of a name for it yet.

Sherri Ulrich has her own tailoring shop. She does alot of her own designing and sewing, but everything is made out of terrycloth material, she's really hooked on the stuff.

Anna Steinbach owns her own baseball team. She spends most of her time traveling with the team, to watch them, or was that the umpire she watches?!?

After all of Melanie McNea's wrong choices she has found Mr. Right.

Kelly Hohenstein is the first person to graduate from MSU with an all sports major.

Wills

I, Dave Pongratz, will my lunch ticket to Wes Griffin so he has one of his own next year.

I, Jodi Oslund, will to Tracy Blanck the ability to stay awake long enough to be able to play poker and win.

I, Michelle Jansen, will my ability to finish an entire book in only one year to Greg Johnson who probably will never finish a book.

I, Dave Pongratz, will to Dan Friedriches my bottle opener in hopes that he will use it as much as I did.

I, Val Fleming, will my cracked egg to Lynn Dalluge in case her's gets kidnapped in the science room.

I, Tory Lee Lundgren, will my double-neck guitar to Randy Moloski so his shoulder can get just as sore as mine.

I, Christine May, will to Tessie the ability to write her name so everyone can read it.

I, Wesley Kranz, will to Wes Griffin my speed in hopes that he puts it to good use in football.

We, the senior guys, will a lifetime supply of hairspray to Peggy Hohenstein in hopes that it'll last her more than a week.

I, Dave Pongratz, will my chair in the principal's office to Mark Hulstrand in hopes he will keep it occupied as much as I did.

We, Kevin Heller and Michelle Jansen, will our title as "most likely to succeed" to any junior who wants the course.

We, the senior class, will to the junior class all of our privileges. Every last one!!!

I, Lisa Jaeger, will to Jodi Johnson and Peggy Hohenstein two football helmets for the back window of their cars in case a cop should stop them.

We, David Ziegler and Bryan Sowers will to Tim Altenburg, a back 40 of his own, in hopes that he builds a private parking lot on it.

We, Kenya Swanson, Lisa Jaeger, Amy Mountain, and Amy Kortuem, will to the junior girls David Ziegler. GOOD LUCK!!!

We, Jodi Oslund and Ginny Glaubitz, will to any junior the ability to take all the heckling that we did as volleyball managers in hopes you appreciate all the "no thanks" you get!!!

We, Kevin Hagge and Lisa Jaeger, will to Eric Zuehlke a tractor, a bobcat, and a manure spreader in hopes we won't have to help him next time.

We, the German kids, will to Otto one "Spieltag"!

I, Mike Jansen, will my band room office spare to Jeff Saucier in hopes that he might take advantage of our secretary Louage.

I, Dave Pongratz, will my upper body to "Bookem" because he needs a muscular top half.

We, Bryan Sowers and Kevin Hagge, will to Brian Swanson all of our clothes in hopes, that from now on when he plays cards he can keep them on.

We, Mr. Hagge and Mr. Sowers will our ability to steal a truck right under someones feet to Miss Eberhart and Miss Johnson. Maybe they won't ever ride with Miss Jaeger again.

We, the senior guys, will to Jeff Saucier a butterfinger!

We, Amy Mountain and Lisa Jaeger, will the Nicollet guys to Jodi Johnson.

We, Dave Ziegler, Bryan Sowers, and Kevin Hagge, will our ability to play baseball to Tim Altenburg, maybe next year he will get wise.

I, Paul Meyer, will my ability to crash cars to any Junior who thinks he or she can do it better. If anyone wants to contact me, I will be attending a Drivers Improvement Class.

I, Kevin Heller, will my VW Bug with a flyswater to any junior who has the guts to ride in it.

I, Dave Ziegler, will to Brian Swanson my ability to pitch and play "D" in hopes that he uses them while batting.

We, the senior basketball players, will new stat girls to next year's team. Maybe they will see a whole game.

I, Paul Meyer, will my tape "Trio and Error" with the song "Boom Boom" to Missy Eberhart.

I, Jodi Oslund, will to Tracy Blanck my ability to make it through a revolving door and not get my arm caught.

I, Sherri Ulrich, will to Brenda Friedrichs my knee pads in hopes that she will be able to use them as much as I did. I hope you won't need elbow pads, too.

We, Jenny Seewald and Beth Wheeler, will our yellow flourscent scarves to Scott Ziegler and Jeff Hopp in hopes that they light up their lives so they never lose their ways.

I, Kenya Rae Swanson, will my prom night with Brent Jaeger to Brenda Friedrichs in hopes she has more fun than I did.

We, the Casio Club of Wellcome Memorial High School Garden City, will next years Trig class the ability to talk Mr. Wolle into not giving us an assignment.

I, Lisa Jaeger, will to Luke Kranz and Jodi Johnson the ability to go poofen' without getting stuck. And if you should get stuck I will you the ability to get the doors open!

We, Kevin Heller, Ginny Glaubitz, and Lisa Jaeger, will to Jodi Johnson a string for jogging pants in hopes she will be able to keep them on in cheerleading practice.

We, the seniors, will to every junior Mr. Hagens theories in hopes they will open their doors faster than they have ours.

I, Lisa Jaeger, will my cheerleading shoes to Theresa in hopes she'll stay off of crutches long enough to use them.

We, Monkey and Hogg, will our bodies to a zoo in Kenya, Africa.

We, Paul Meyer and Rusty Burns, will our singing ability to any junior guys who think they can handle 42 women.

We, Michelle Jansen and Sherri Ulrich, will our authority over the #9 bus to Luke Kranz, Craig Hoeft, Wes Griffin, and Jeff Hopp in hopes that they can keep those kids in control as well as we did. (especially Louie)

I, Ginny Glaubitz, will my position in Student Council to anyone who can survive the meetings!

To my favorite bags, Missy and Brenda, I, Kenya will a new heavy duty sink.

We, David Ziegler, Rusty Burns, and Paul Meyer will our title of the "A Team" to Craig Hoeft, Luke Kranz, and Bookem.

I, Lisa Jaeger, will my cousin Quint's dog to Brenda Friedrichs since she was the only one who could hold an intelligent conversation with him on the fourth of July.

I, Michelle Jansen, will my professional skills to Kathy Hiniker who obviously needs it.

I, Sherri Ulrich, will my horseback riding ability to Brian Eekhoff in hopes that he can stay on his horse next time in the corn field. I hope you have trained your horse so we don't have to chase it next time.

I, Ginny Glaubitz, will my cheerleading ability to Lynn Dalluge.

I, Pommo, will my ability to swim on the mats to anyone who thinks they can survive as long as I did.

I, Beth Hohenstein, will my ability to outrun cops in Mankato to any junior who needs it.

We, the senior volleyball players, will our ability to any juniors who can go as far as we did.

We, the seniors, will Rod Blanck's sense of humor to the juniors with hopes they find it funnier than we did.

If we succeed in giving the love of learning, the learning itself is sure to follow.
Sir John Lubbock

The only way to keep your education is to give it away.

From the very beginning of his education, the child should experience the joy of discovery.
Alfred North Whitehead

The object of teaching the child is to enable him to get along without his teacher.

Our progress as a nation can be no swifter than our progress in education. The human mind is our fundamental resource.
John F. Kennedy

Teaching is what's right about education.

Learn as if you were to live forever. Live as if you were to die tomorrow.

He who cares to learn will always find a teacher.

If the school sends out children with a desire for knowledge and some idea of how to acquire and use it, it will have done its work.

Chris,
Remember the time we all slept over night at your house + your shades suddenly rolled up. - we all freaked out!!
God, we've known each other for so long. It seems like yesterday we were going to kindergarten.
We are all so different now. We hardly know anything about one another.
I do hear that you have a great future going for you. Just remember to always be happy in everything you do.
Good luck - I hope you succeed.
friends + classmates.

Chris -
I was going to be funny & where Anita wrote 'Keep ~~Keep~~ smilin', I was going to write Know you can always count on me for sure etc etc. What a song! Beautiful! That should be taken out of our peer folders and burned. That class is a joke. I'm going to run out and buy a Striped shirt too! I should get our whole row to dress like Zebra's! Well, I already wrote about good luck & what a sweet person you are. I hope that nothing in life gets you down (love will find a way!!) and that nothing comes between us being friends unless it has to deal with you or I. I think you fun to be with We should go bowling - I like that!! - or do something fun before we all go our separate ways. We could go man hunting! Cinco it'd be fun! Lets Go!!
Good luck in everything you do.

P.S. - You owe me one - good thing I saved your buns! I want some red suede shoes!

Love & friendship always,
Theresa Lundgren

Dear Chris,

I really hate Consumers! "Why did we take this class?" (our everyday question!) Oh well, at least I can sit & rag at you all hour. (HA: Quit picking on me!)

I'm really jealous that you get to accompany Mrs. Dunn in Chorus - it's just not fair! How do you rate? Just cuz I can't play the piano, doesn't mean I can't accompany! Geez. Whats the matter with you people??!!

Seriously though, you are really a super and fun friend. I wish you much luck in your future - especially with ♡Gary♡. And also remember you will be my psychiatrist & you will also do my taxes! (Since Mr. Eschertaught you so well! HA!)

Take care & lets keep in touch!

God bless!

Keep Smiling!

Love-n-friends,

'87 Anita Anderson

Chris,

I'll always treasure you being there at your best & worst. I want you to know that you do have amazing inner strength. Please don't ever change. You are special; there isn't another one like you.

Laughing,

Chris,

Will we survive Chorus? I think so. It will be tough but I think we're building up a tolerance to her. I think we should each get our own piano at our desks so we don't have to run around in these all hour. I'm glad we've been and are such good friends. We need eachother so if one of us breaks a hand (or a foot- and can't run the pedals!) we have someone to save us! Good Luck at SWS or MSU or wherever you go. Be good to Gary and don't start your family till you're out of the dorms.

Take Care & God Bless! ← Bugs taught me how to do that!!

Love & Friends,
Amy Hohenstein

Chris,

I'm glad that we've gotten to know each other over the past few years, but I wish that we could g gotten to known each other better, the years have gone by so fast and now we're already Seniors! Let's make the rest g the year a good one. I wish you the best g luck in the future in whatever you do, I know you'd achieve it. Hope to see ya around after graduation.

I hate writing so this will be short. Probably. Prom was fun this year. You dance pretty good when you don't have to adjust your dress. The doughnuts were good and still are. (We have some left) I hope you make it to your goal in life and have fun doing it.

Chris,
Yes, chow would we ever get through chorus or ever our senior year without going around as going around as much as we do? Ya know, though, that's just our class- always running and doing around- Crazily ever a serious moment- that's what we'll probably remember most about each other. But I'll remember more than that about you- we really did used to be close and I had alot of fun with you (running down your road in the middle of the night and you tripping in a hole during crayfish and walking (or falling) across stones in your creek) we were really crazy back then. But there were also the times that I'll remember your other side- like when you used to visit "Birdie". You were always so kind and caring towards Cher and I'm sure that she always had a place for you in Cher heart. Chris, you probably really made Cher life worth living, I'm sure that she looked forward to your visits because I know that she loved you like a grand-daughter. Never change that Quality, Chris. It's a special one to have and not many people are lucky enough to possess it! Just really go for your dreams and don't let anyone ever stop you or get in your way - you can be anything you want! I guess that also by the end of the year, I really want to get to be better friends! I'm sure that we will- I'll really be fun to relive up some of the old times!

Take care... Love and Friends Always -
